W.P(C).No.4506 OF 2007

Dated this the 9th day of February, 2007

JUDGMENT

The petitioner came into possession of an item of Government land for the purpose of an Agro Fruit Project going by Ext.P17. According to the petitioner, the land was in her possession for some other purpose and that she had applied for assignment of the said land in her favour. She contends that though application for assignment was filed in 1987, the same is still pending, however, that the decision for resumption is now issued in the form of Ext.P17. Be it a dispute under the Land Assignment Act or under the Land Conservancy Act, the petitioner has efficacious alternate remedy before the superior authority. Under such circumstances, without prejudice to such right of the petitioner, this writ petition is disposed of directing that Ext.P17 will not be enforced for a period of four weeks to let the petitioner to avail appropriate remedy and seek any interim relief from that authority.

The writ petition is disposed of with the above direction.
